

90-Day German Basic Communication Plan (2 Hours Daily)

This guide is designed for absolute focus: 2 hours per day to build basic German communication skills for daily conversation and interview readiness.

DAILY STRUCTURE (2 HOURS TOTAL): 1) Speaking Practice (45 min) - Self-introduction - Daily life sentences - Job-related explanations - Speak out loud, no translation 2) Listening Practice (30 min) - Easy German videos or slow speech - Repeat sentences (shadowing) 3) Vocabulary (30 min) - 15–20 new words daily - Use spaced repetition (Anki) 4) Basic Grammar (15 min) - Sentence structure (verb second position) - Present tense verbs - Simple connectors (weil, dass, und)

PHASE PLAN: Days 1–30: - Basic sentences - Greetings, introductions - Present tense only Days 31–60: - Job-related communication - Past tense basics - Speaking about experience Days 61–90: - Interview answers - Work explanations - Mock conversations

RULES FOR SUCCESS: - Never skip speaking practice - Repeat sentences daily until automatic - Do not focus on perfection - Consistency > intensity - Speak even if you make mistakes
EXPECTED RESULT AFTER 90 DAYS: - Basic conversational German (A2 level) - Ability to introduce yourself in interviews - Ability to explain work experience simply
